Mass Intentions

What greater tribute to a loved one or to a special family member or friend than to have a Mass said in their honor? If you would like to have a mass said in honor of someone or in memory of someone, simply put their name and the intention in an envelope (available at both churches) along with the recommended donation of $10 and place it in the collection basket or contact the parish office at St. Rose Church see Marilyn Sillars, Linda Butler or Fr. Marc at St. Paul Church see Jim Foxall in the parish office, for either church, call (309) 833-2496.

Parish Bible Study

Sign up through October 5 in the Narthex for our new Bible Study. Orientation will be held Wednesday, October 8 at 6:00 PM in the Rectory Conference Room.

Beginning October 15, classes will meet in the Chapel with two sessions offered at 9:00 AM and 6:00 PM.

Reception for Barbara Harzman

Join us in honoring Barbara Harzman, recipient of the Our Lady of Good Counsel Award from the NCCW. Reception hosted by St. Paul's Women's Guild: Sunday, September 28, 1:30-3:30 pm in the church narthex. All are welcome!

October 4th is the feast day of St. Francis.

There will be a Pet Blessing on our campus on Friday, October 3rd at 2:45 PM. Please bring your pet if you would like Father Marc to bless it. In addition to the Pet Blessing, the 2nd grade class at St. Paul School is collecting items for the McDonough County Animal Shelter. See insert in this weeks bulletin for more details.

Online Giving

Online Giving helps you maintain your giving even if you cannot be here at Mass. This also helps the parish streamline our cash flow, especially during bad weather or vacation times. Go to your parish website at <http://stpaulmacomb.com/church> to get started today.

<http://stroserushville.com> or at

You can setup and manage your account at ONLINE GIVING at St. Hubert Parish:

<https://osvhub.com/sthubertmacomb/giving/funds>

*Offertory needed each week will be updated when the new budget is in place.

Envelope Collection

While we have merged the envelope accounts, we still need everyone to continue to make your check out to your respective church, either St. Rose or St. Paul as the payee. We do not have accounts to reflect the name of St. Hubert Parish. Until that happens, PLEASE make your check out to either St. Rose or St. Paul Church.

If you have questions, please ask the parish office.

Tree Planting Update

Due to ongoing drought conditions, the tree planting ceremony—planned to replace the Burr oak that made way for our new Parish Hall—has been postponed until further notice. We'll share a new planting date when conditions improve.

Pray the Novena for the Priesthood with Hallow

Join us in a 9-day novena on the Hallow app: The Love of the Priesthood, led by Bishop Louis Tylka and inspired by Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen. Pray for vocations, our priests, and the holiness of the Church. Free for all parishioners – just download Hallow and search The Love of the Priesthood. Available beginning September 20, the anniversary of Sheen's ordination.

What does our Catholic faith tell us about Creation?

Often, when we speak of creation, it is related to nature, animals, landscapes, the sun, the moon, but we are also aware that the human being is the culmination of our Father's creative work, "God saw all he had made, and indeed it was very good." (Gen 1:31), the Sacred Scripture states.

As Pope Francis wrote in Laudato Si', "‘Everyone's talents and involvement are needed to redress the damage caused by human abuse of God's creation'. All of us can cooperate as instruments of God for the care of creation, each according to his or her own culture, experience, involvements and talents." (LS14). Take time to really see the beauty around you as a way to connect with God.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the past century, a desire to recover a deep sense of unity among all believers in Christ has grown. The "ecumenical movement" (from the Greek word meaning the "the whole inhabited world") began among Protestant Christians, but was given great energy in 1920 with a letter from the Orthodox Patriarch of Constantinople, calling for closer dialogue and cooperation among Christians.

In 1960, Pope John XXIII invited Protestant and Orthodox observers to the Second Vatican Council. In 1964, the Council's Decree on Ecumenism named these Christians "separated brethren," a huge leap forward from the time of labeling them as "outside the Church." A year later, a new pope, Paul VI, and the Orthodox Patriarch officially nullified the condemnations that walled off East from West for nine hundred years.

The pace and optimism of the 1960s has sadly waned, and the signs of progress toward unity are few; yet there are wider agreements on sharing Communion among various Christian denominations, and among Protestants agreements regarding sharing of ecclesiastical life and ministry.

Among the success stories of the ecumenical movement are greater cooperation among Christian clergy, a similar Lectionary for Protestants and Catholics, and even experiments in the monastic life and common worship.

The Word in our Lives

Today's reading from First Timothy sounds almost like a coach getting his team ready for the big game. This coach has much higher goals than a home run or a touchdown. Instead of pursuing a league championship, he seeks faith, love, patience, and gentleness. How about us? Are we in the game or on the sidelines? Let's look at what Coach Paul is talking about.

Faith is a relationship with the Lord in which we imitate Jesus' outlook on life, his teachings, his love of God. We struggle with his commands to love our enemies, to turn the other cheek, to forgive all wrongs, and to take up our cross each day. As Paul would say, we are "competing well for the faith."

We pursue love by listening to the Gospel, in which Jesus tells the parable of the rich man who was only concerned with his own comfort. Jesus says that if we truly understood the prophets, such as our first reading from Amos, we would not spend all our energy and wealth on ourselves.

As we learn to let go of our need to have everything go our way, we become more patient with people who disagree with us, or with frustrations and problems. We learn to see God in our setbacks as well as in our successes. Striving to see Jesus in everyone, we can become more patient with them. They will begin to see Jesus in us as our devotion to him grows. Experiencing the Lord is the championship we want.
