Parish Updates

This weekend, the priests of the Diocese of Peoria will gather for their annual Convocation, which will take place June 14–18, 2026, at the Grand Geneva Resort in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. During this time, Communion Services will be led by Deacon Larry Adams. Please take a moment to read Bishop Lou’s letter, which is included in this bulletin, and keep all our priests in your prayers as they gather for prayer, fellowship, and ongoing formation.

Last weekend, members of the Capital Campaign Committee provided an update at all Masses on the progress of our campaign since its kickoff last month. Thanks to your generous support, we have received total pledges of $431,010, of which $153,656 has already been paid. In addition, we have received $89,027 in cash contributions to date. To help keep parishioners informed, two campaign thermometers have been placed in the narthex and will be updated weekly to reflect both pledges received and funds collected. Thank you for your continued generosity and commitment to the future of our parish.

Father James Pallardy has requested, and Bishop Lou has granted, senior priest status. Father James will conclude his ministry with us and begin his retirement on July 1, 2026. Please join me in expressing our heartfelt gratitude for his dedicated service, faithful ministry, and many contributions to our parish community. We wish Father James abundant blessings, good health, and much happiness in his retirement.

Treasures From Our Tradition

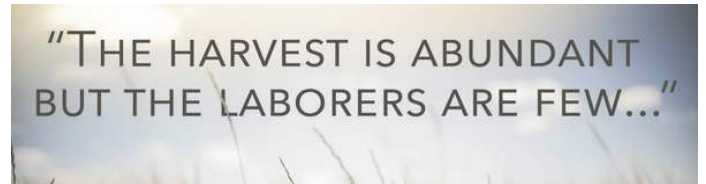

Eastern Christians have no sacrament of “confirmation,” but they have always had the custom of richly anointing the newly baptized in myron, or sacred chrism. They also give even infants a taste of the Precious Blood, thereby doing away with any notion of “First Communion” in later childhood.

In the West, although we too have an anointing with chrism for the newly baptized, for centuries we have normally reserved a second anointing for the bishop, sometimes many years after baptism. There are many reasons for this, not the least of which is the fact that in early times the bishop was the ordinary person to officiate at baptism, not the presbyter (priest). The bishop did it all, from plunging the catechumens into the font, to pouring chrism over them, to immediately celebrating the Eucharist. When bishops began to cede some of their ministry to the ranks of presbyters, they desired to maintain a strong relationship with baptism. (continued on next column)

Thus it was decided that the solemn post baptismal anointing, the laying on of hands, and the prayer for the gifts of the Holy Spirit were to be detached from infant baptism. So, to the present day, we have two anointings after baptism: one by the priest, and the other normally by the bishop. By the fifth century, the word “confirmation” had surfaced to refer to this second anointing.

The Word in our Lives

Free of Charge

Knowing that God keeps his promises is part of being a believer. And how do we know that? Because we see how he has kept them throughout history. If we lose hope or begin to doubt that he will help us, it's useful to remember what he has already done. Saint Paul talks about this in the second reading. Christ died for us while we were sinners, and so Saint Paul concludes that, having been saved from sin, we will also be saved from death. We are free from sin and death. And isn't that enough?

Jesus shows us that God can do even more. When he saw the crowds in today's Gospel, he felt compassion for them because they were "like sheep without a shepherd." They seemed to need leaders, someone who could show them the way to God. So Jesus responds in two ways.

First, he teaches his disciples to pray for more leaders. What he means is that if people are going to lead the Church, they must be sent by God. They are not elected by popular vote. They are “chosen” or called by God to serve. Jesus is teaching us to pray for the leaders of the Church today. We can pray for all those in a leadership role, that they may be filled with wisdom and strength. Jesus also teaches us to pray for vocations to religious life.

The second thing Jesus does is send the twelve apostles to proclaim the Kingdom and heal illnesses. He teaches us that action must go hand in hand with prayer. This may mean offering our help to parish leaders, serving a term on the parish council, or encouraging our children to consider a religious vocation.

Why should we do these things? Remember what Paul said, that God saves us from sin and death. God gives us these gifts at no cost. He simply asks us to spread the good news of salvation. That's what leadership within the Church is all about.
